

Cheryl Peake - June 13, 2013

With much regret for the loss of British Ice Skater Cheryl Peake. Tributes are coming in from all over the World for Cheryl. Cheryl Peake and Andrew Naylor were the dominant force in British Pairs Skating for most of the late 80's/early 90's. In that time they won the British Senior Pairs Championships 7 years in succession, from 1986 to 1992. This earned them regular appearances at the European Championships from 1986 to 1992, and every year they finished in the top 10. They placed 5th place in 1987 and 1989. They also competed at the World Championships from 1986 to 1991 and, with the exception of 1990 (when Catherine Barker and Michael Aldred represented Britain instead), every year they finished between 9th and 12th. Their best result was 9th place in 1987. In 1988, they competed in the Winter Olympics in Calgary, finishing 12th in both programmes, and 12th overall! Here is a video of their Short Programme from Calgary. Free Skate from the 1986 Skate America, Free Skate from the 1988 Skate America. Cheryl and Andrew retired from competitive skating in 1992.
