

Catherine Packard - July 13, 2010

CATHERINE PACKARD Catherine "Cissy" Packard, 83, of Las Vegas, passed away July 13, 2010, at Nathan Adelson Hospice. She was born March 10, 1927, in Pennsylvania, and was a 10-year resident of Nevada. After a long career as a professional ice skating instructor, she came to Las Vegas to retire. She absolutely loved Las Vegas. Her family misses her so much. The hardest thing in life to bear is to want your mother and she's not there. With a broken heart we all whisper low, "God bless you Mom, we love you so." Cissy is survived by her two sons, Randy and Jim; daughter, Sue; daughter-in-laws, Julie and Debbie; and son-in-law, Gregg. She was blessed to have many grandchildren; and even a few great-grandchildren, that she loved so much. No services are scheduled.

Published in Las Vegas Review-Journal on July 15, 2010