

New Reunion Information

New Dates – June 8, 9, 10, 2021

WE ARE EXCITED TO RE-ANNOUNCE NEW DATES of JUNE 8, 9, 10, 2021
for our ICE CAPADES REUNION!

It took some doing, but we were able to re-negotiated dates into 2021! Hoping these days work out better for most everyone!

Big thank you to everyone for your understanding, and anticipated flexibility, knowing that this is something we had little control over.

IN RESPONSE TO THE MOVING OF OUR DATE, We are offering our EARLY BIRD pricing through May 29th. $355 (a $20 savings per ticket). We so are thrilled that the show (party) must -and will- go on!!!

Know if you already paid, your registration is confirmed, and you need not do anything. Hotel Rates, will remain the same. All hotel reservations will be transferred to the new dates. Call to confirm, if concerned after Monday.

So much work has been done, and we are very excited about our upcoming time together. The weather should be perfect, and many will have had some extra time to recover economically to be better able to join us next June.

This gathering is going to be a lot of fun, with activities planned for inside the hotel during the day hours, for those that may not want to be in the sun all day.

For now, please stay safe, and do your best to stay home, and self-isolate at this time.

SAD NEWS

Karen Borthwick Westfall – Feb. 28, 2020

Karen Borthwick Westfall parted from us all too soon on Feb. 28, 2020. She leaves behind so much sorrow to the many who love her, especially her husband of 26 years, Gary Westfall. Karen was born in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, on December 14, 1957. As a child, her tenacious spirit was seen in her love and devotion to figure skating. Her early skating talent led her to travel with the Ice Capades in her young adult years. Later her wanderlust led her to explore as many roads as possible at home in the desert and abroad on motorcycles, with her husband Gary and close friends for over 26 years. Evidence of Karen's entrepreneurial spirit can be seen in her successful design business in the desert, "Floor Styles", where she made great design friends and close clients. Many of her family and friend's homes are dotted with her hand-selected rugs and design. And if you did not receive a rug, you most definitely received a card from Karen. She will be sadly missed for all the holiday cards and well wishes she lovingly sent to all.

She is survived by: Her husband Gary and stepson James. Her siblings: Heather Borthwick (David Hoff), Greg Borthwick (Michelle), and Hugh Borthwick (Kathleen). Her nieces: Morgan and Michaela Borthwick, and Lauren Borthwick Hoff. Her nephews: Hudson Borthwick, Ryan, Nathan, and Elliot Borthwick-Hoff. Many uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends. In lieu of flowers, donations can be given to The Nature Conservancy at support.nature.org/donate?

Mette Morch Fieldberg – March 12, 2020

Unfortunately by press time, have not received any further details on Mette's passing. Condolences to Mette's family from her Ice Capades family at this time.

The Olympic champion has a collection worth $750,000.

Feb 23, 2020, 8:30PM By MeTV Staff

Scott Hamilton is a four-time world champion figure skater, best known for winning the 1984 Olympic gold medal during the Winter Games in Sarajevo. He's also a world-class memorabilia collector.

But while he does keep a few items from his notable figure skating career, including the costume he wore in the 1984 Olympics, his collection isn't dominated by items from his career.

Instead, Scott primarily collects vintage pinball machines and guitars autographed by rock and roll's most famous personalities, including the Eagles and Bruce Springsteen. Most of these items were purchased to benefit a variety of charities, including his own Scott Hamilton CARES Foundation.

Scott is joined by his wife, Tracie, who shares his dedication to charitable organizations and love for music. And Lisa has brought back certified appraiser Judy Martin, who has something quite unique from the music world to offer as a trade item. Take a leap into Scott's collection.

2. 1983 Corn Flakes Box

Why is Scott Hamilton holding onto a box of cereal from the Reagan Era? Well, he's on the cover. Watch More

3. 1984 Winter Olympic Pins

Hamilton has a complete set of pins for every athletic discipline in the 1984 Winter Olympics in Sarajevo. Vucko the wolf, the mascot of the games, can be seen performing in these cute collectible. Watch More

4. Autographed Eagles Guitar

Glenn Frey, Don Henley and Joe Walsh of the legendary American rock act the Eagles all inked this black acoustic guitar. Watch Now
